

As an an operator in the ISM bands, we have many people that we can not serve due to folige from trees. The lower frequencies and higher power would allow us to serve many more people that are now languishing with dial up.
Thank you.

Tim Jones